£60 off Pass Plus

Pass Plus is a course that you can take once you have passed your driving test, which consists of at least six hours of practical training involving motorway and dual carriageway experience, town and country roads, night and all weather driving. The cost of Pass Plus varies and you may wish to shop around.

Why do it?

By improving your driving skills and hazard awareness you can reduce the risk of being involved in a serious crash. Many insurance companies offer a discount for young drivers who have completed a Pass Plus course within 12 months of passing their test.

See www.passplus.org.uk
